Thirty Three over Three (“33/3”) Award

Helping Hands of Tampa Bay Foundation, Inc.
A Florida 501(c)(3) Non-Profit Organization
Document Number: N14000000884 | Federal EIN: 47-3988896

1. Nature of Award

This is a discretionary youth scholarship award granted by Helping Hands of Tampa Bay Foundation, Inc. (“Foundation”), a Florida 501(c)(3) non-profit corporation, Document Number N14000000884, Federal EIN 47-3988896, founded in 2014. The Award is made in recognition of the Recipient’s athletic acceptance by Club Atletic Segre (Lleida, Spain) and academic excellence, and is intended solely to assist with living, educational, and sports-related expenses while the Recipient is pursuing these activities abroad.

2. Funding Commitment

The Foundation commits to make available up to Thirty-Three Thousand Three Hundred Thirty-Three U.S. Dollars ($33,333.00) per calendar year for each of the three (3) years of the Funding Period (January 1, 2027 – December 31, 2029), for a maximum aggregate commitment of Ninety-Nine Thousand Nine Hundred Ninety-Nine U.S. Dollars ($99,999.00). Availability is subject to the monthly maximum draw of Two Thousand Seven Hundred Seventy-Seven and 75/100 U.S. Dollars ($2,777.75).

3. Distribution Method

Funds may be disbursed (a) by direct payment to the Recipient or a designated account, or (b) by reimbursement of documented, qualifying expenses. The Foundation may require reasonable supporting documentation (receipts, invoices, enrollment confirmations, or similar) before processing reimbursements. Unused monthly capacity does not automatically roll forward unless the Foundation agrees otherwise in writing.

4. Permitted Uses

Award funds may be used only for reasonable costs of living, education (tuition, books, related academic expenses), and sports-related activities (including soccer training, equipment, travel, and participation costs) incurred by the Recipient in connection with residence and activity in Spain during the Funding Period. Funds may not be used for personal entertainment, luxury items, or any purpose unrelated to the stated objectives of the Award.

5. Conditions of Continued Eligibility

Continued eligibility is conditioned on the Recipient remaining in good standing with Club Atletic Segre (or equivalent recognized athletic program), maintaining satisfactory academic progress, and complying with all applicable laws. The Foundation reserves the right to request reasonable verification of continued eligibility. Material misrepresentation or failure to use funds for permitted purposes may result in suspension or termination of remaining funding.

6. Non-Transferability; No Employment or Agency Relationship

This Award is personal to Enzo Longrie and is non-transferable. Nothing in this Award creates an employment, agency, partnership, joint venture, or independent-contractor relationship between the Recipient and the Foundation. The Award does not constitute compensation for services rendered to the Foundation.

7. Tax Obligations

The Recipient is solely and exclusively responsible for determining, reporting, and paying any and all federal, state, local, or foreign taxes (including Spanish taxes) that may arise from the receipt, use, or availability of Award funds.

The Foundation makes no representation, warranty, or guarantee regarding the tax treatment of this Award under U.S. Internal Revenue Code provisions (including but not limited to Section 117 regarding qualified scholarships), Spanish tax law, or the laws of any other jurisdiction.

The Recipient acknowledges that portions of the Award used for living expenses or non-qualified educational costs may be taxable as income. The Recipient is strongly advised to consult an independent qualified tax advisor in both the United States and Spain.

The Foundation shall have no obligation to withhold, report, or remit any taxes on the Recipient’s behalf, except as may be required by mandatory law. Any tax forms (including Form 1099 or equivalent) that the Foundation may be legally required to issue shall not alter the Recipient’s ultimate tax responsibility.

8. Legal Terms and General Provisions

8.1 Compliance with Law. The Recipient shall use all Award funds in compliance with applicable U.S., Florida, Spanish, and international laws and regulations.

8.2 Indemnification. The Recipient agrees to indemnify, defend, and hold harmless the Foundation, its directors, officers, employees, and agents from and against any claims, liabilities, losses, damages, costs, or expenses (including reasonable attorneys’ fees) arising out of or related to the Recipient’s use of Award funds, tax obligations, or any breach of these terms.

8.3 Limitation of Liability. To the maximum extent permitted by law, the Foundation's total liability under this Award shall not exceed the actual amount of funds disbursed to the Recipient. In no event shall the Foundation be liable for indirect, incidental, consequential, special, or punitive damages.

8.4 Governing Law and Venue. This Award Letter and these Fine Print / Legal Terms shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Florida, without regard to conflict-of-law principles. Any legal action arising under this Award shall be brought exclusively in the state or federal courts located in Pinellas County, Florida.

8.5 Severability. If any provision of these terms is held to be invalid or unenforceable, the remaining provisions shall continue in full force and effect.

8.6 Entire Agreement. This Award Letter and these Fine Print / Legal Terms constitute the entire agreement between the parties concerning the Award and supersede all prior or contemporaneous discussions, representations, or agreements. No modification shall be effective unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the Foundation.

8.7 No Third-Party Beneficiaries. Nothing in this Award creates any rights in any person or entity other than the Recipient and the Foundation.
